

Key Priorities at Millfields 2020-21

- To ensure that all children are given appropriate and positive opportunities to develop and enhance their learning
- To continue to review and adapt the provision for phonics and reading across the school to secure excellent progress and outcomes for all pupils
- To address areas for development in Maths learning, particularly revision of number and reasoning
- Review the curriculum provision, particularly PHSCE to ensure it is underpinned by the school's vision, values and context and considers equality and community cohesion
- To address, promote and support the emotional wellbeing, mental health and equality of opportunity for all individuals and groups that has arisen as a result of school closure/lockdown.
- Continue to review the intent, implementation and impact of additional support and interventions for all pupils identified with additional needs particularly in light of home learning
