Celebrating reading at Millfields!

It has been a wonderful Book Week full of all things reading! It has been great to hear the children talking about authors and characters in the books and comics that they enjoy reading!

We had a great turnout for the Reading Breakfast for Nursery, reception, Y1 and Y2 parents and children. It was lovely to see so many children reading with their adult while enjoying a late breakfast snack. We are hoping to arrange some more of these sessions next half term. Some of our classes have also visited the local Pages Bookshop, and others will be visiting over the next few weeks. Yesterday, we had a brilliant time celebrating World Book Day! As ever, well done and 'thank you' to the Millfields' children (and parents of course!), and staff, who all made a massive effort dressing up. All the costumes were amazing - especially the homemade ones! We also had the great Book Swap yesterday! This was a great way for your child to recycle books, for the children to browse a range of books and ultimately for every child to go home with a new book to read!

Also, thank you to the children and parents for the amazing 'Stories in a Jar' - there was a huge array of fabulous and fantastic creations! Thank you to PSA Lead, Heather, and Chair of Governors, Joe for being part of the judging panel! Look out for the names of the winners later in the Mag! You all did yourselves proud! The jars will all be on display at the upcoming Parents Evenings, so we hope you are able to see some of the wonderful creations then. Also this week, lots of parents, and grandparents, have been visiting classrooms to read stories. The children have thoroughly enjoyed hearing so many different adults reading to them and have asked for more of this! Thank you so much to all of you who came in!

Thank you to all the staff, parents and pupils for really entering into the spirit of this week and making the World Book Day and all the activities so enjoyable. And a big, big 'thank you' to Sheyenne for organising all of the activities and for having the inspiration, energy and enthusiasm for making it all happen.

Today, it is International Women's Day, and we celebrated lots of brilliant, talented and inspirational women that we know in our Y2 Sharing Assemblies.

Also today, our School Cabinet and other class representatives went to Snaresbrook Court to take part in an interactive workshop and participate in a mock-trial on the topic of cyber-bullying. They also had the opportunity to meet a judge and ask questions. The aim of the trip was to help pupils gain practical experience of the law and justice system at an age appropriate level. The children who visited had a great time and learnt loads! Thanks to Emma for organising.

A reminder that Spring term Parents' Evenings are on Tuesday 19th and Wednesday 20th March. You will need to book your slot via SCOPay from next week, but the actual meetings are in person at school.

Thank you also to all the children and parents from KS1 who came to the PSA Film Night last night. It was an unusually quiet affair and the children really enjoyed watching the film, Luca, with their friends. Next Thursday 14th March is KS2 Film Night and the PSA will be showing Wonka! Please buy your tickets via the class Whatsapp.

Next Friday 15th March is Comic Relief -Red Nose Day, so it is a non-uniform day and we will be asking you to wear your own clothes -something red, and a red nose! Red noses are on sale for £2 from all the gates and the main office.

Have a great weekend - I think the weather is meant to be a bit warmer, or at least sunny! And for all the Mums and Grandmothers out there, (including those who may no longer be with us) 'Happy Mother's Day'. Take care and stay well. Best Wishes, Jane
