MILLFIELDS FIGHTING THE SCHOOL CUTS

We have had a very busy week as usual and in particular, we have been joining the national campaign against proposed education cuts. Children, parents and staff have been making some brilliant banners during their lunch hour and we have also been recording our very own campaign song; thanks to the senior choir members, Roz and Tom. On Monday, as part of a joint awareness campaign across Hackney, we put up our Cuts Banner and were joined on the school gate, by MP Diane Abbot and Councillor Ian Rathbone of Lea Bridge Ward. The children, parents and staff really got behind the impromptu event and showed our community action against the cuts. We also held a meeting on Monday to plan other events and action over the next few weeks.

Yesterday was Outdoor Education day and, as well as the whole school having a brilliant time running around and playing on Hackney Marshes and enjoying a big picnic, we had a whole school photo taken via a drone, of the children spelling out S.O.S. (Save Our Schools). There will be photos on the school boards and other opportunities to see the photo on social media and publications in the next few weeks. Thank you to parents who came to help out with the logistics on the day, and to Fiona McAllister for the idea in the first place and to Jorn Tomter who owns the drone and took the photos. The staff and children really enjoyed the day, playing lots of team games, hide and seek, skipping, sketching and drawing wildlife, buildings and more to really take advantage of learning in the open air! We will be including one outdoor learning lesson every week on our timetables after half term, and then we will review the sessions to agree if this is something that we can continue all year round.

There is a meeting about the school cuts next Wednesday at 5.30pm at Millfields, and there is also a national parents, staff and children picnic to show opposition to the proposed cuts, at Millfields Park on Friday 26th May after school. It would be good to see lots of you there!

Also yesterday, both Year 3 and Reception classes visited the Tate Modern as part of their art curriculum work. The children enjoyed the day out and also learn lots about different artists. They also had a chance to take a photo of the cuts banner on tour!

Earlier this week, Year 3 parents also joined their children for lunch and enjoyed the BBQ chicken that was on offer! Date for Year 4 'Come Dine With Us' is July 4th.

Finally have a good weekend. Best Wishes, Jane
