Red Noses at the Ready at Millfields!

It seems like a very busy and very long week, and I cannot believe that there is only one week left before the Easter break!

Firstly, 'Eid Mubarak' to all our Muslim families. I hope you have all had a lovely day celebrating with family and friends.

Today, the school playground and corridors were filled with chatter and laughter as the whole school celebrated Comic Relief - Red Nose Day! The children and staff were dressed in red, and there were lots of brilliantly designed red noses on show! We have sold more than 650 red noses, and raised more than £300 from on-the-gate donations. Thank you, as always, to the Millfields community - all the money will be going towards Comic Relief charities! The children have all been hearing about the origins of Comic Relief in assemblies this week, and also learned about the many charities that the money raised supports.

Yesterday some of our Cycling Team from Y5 and Y6 took part in the 6th Hackney Cycling League - speed trials on Hackney Downs. The whole team did so well, and all of them clocked high finish times across the 3 races they took part in - a couple of first, second and third places. It means everyone contributed to the overall total points that keeps us at the top of the league! Well-done to all the children who took part and continue to make cycling so successful at Millfields. Thank you to Nishie who always supports the children so well.

Well done to Olympus Class for their lovely Sharing Assembly today. It was great to see such confidence and teamwork. Thank you to all the parents who came along to watch.

We have also been getting ready for STEAM Week, which is next week! The theme this year is 'Curiosity: What's your question?'. This comes from the British Science Association and aims to inspire our pupils to dive into their interests and find solutions to their most pressing STEAM inquiries. There will be a whole school experiment, so please ask your child about all the activities next week.

A reminder that the last day of the Spring term is Friday 27th March, at the usual times - 2:20pm/2:30pm. There are also after-school clubs as usual.

Have a lovely weekend!

Take care, keep well, and stay safe. Jane
