Millfields Learning at Home and at School

It is with a very heavy heart and a tear in my eye that I write this week, as schools are set to close for the foreseeable future. The mantra that we are all hearing constantly are unprecedented times and situations, social distancing, self-isolation, but at the same time, more importantly, community spirit, human kindness, community support and helping neighbours and the most vulnerable. As ever the Millfields community has been amazing - all the parents, staff and the wider community have been fantastic in the support of each other and most importantly, the children and the most vulnerable in our community.

We have tried to keep things as 'normal' and routine as possible this week for the children who have been amazingly resilient. All classes from Y1-Y6 have been taking part in Shakespeare activities as part of Shakespeare Week. Children took part in workshops and assemblies earlier in the week, and have been writing and reading some of Shakespeare's greatest works - hopefully this will continue once school closes today. Please see the link to Hackney Libraries that was sent out earlier today. We also ran a competition and the standard of entries was very high.

believe that huge congratulations go to our two winners - Chieyiem in Mackintosh Class and Mia in Lowry Class - budding artists in our midst! Well done to everyone who entered. Also this week, we celebrated St Patrick's Day as usual, with our annual visit from the St Patrick's Day Troupe - the children were treated to traditional Irish singing, dancing and music.

Finally, I hope that you and your child/ren have received a Resources Bag that is intended to ensure there is still some structured learning for your children in the short to medium term. We are hoping that the information sheet that outlines a suggested learning timetable, along with an English and Maths workbook, and range of websites will help. We have set up class email groups and the teachers will be staying in touch with you at least twice weekly. We will still be producing a Millfields Mag every week to ensure that we still celebrate and enjoy the best of our children and the community, and keep you informed as best as we can. If you would like to share photos in the mag during these next few weeks, please send them to:

Please take care and stay safe at this very difficult time. Best Wishes, Jane
