

Friday 14th June 2018

The DAILY DEMOCRACY

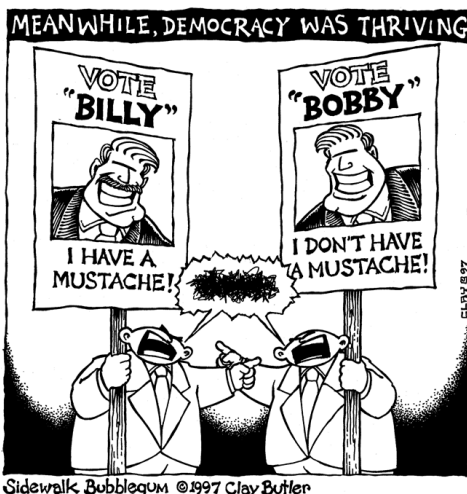

The Latest On Millfields Community School Election

FREE!

Kit Flying High!

It was tense, it was nerve racking, but finally the announcement was made! Special guest Philip Glanville, Mayor Of Hackney, proudly proclaimed the Sky High Blues as the winning party and Kit Crane prime minister and Annie Cherkoff deputy prime minister. More inside.

INSIDE:

- Exclusive: Kit's First Words!
- Remembering Grenfell
- Public Opinion of the Election Result
- The Latest Polls

Remembering Grenfell

On the 14th of June 2018, it was the 1 year anniversary of the tragedy that occurred: the Grenfell Tower fire.

This awful event caused a lot of sadness in the community; 72 innocent people's lives were lost and others lost their homes. It is still unknown how the fire started but there are many theories.

The whole of London has rallied together to raise money and awareness for the families affected. Still, people are living in hotels with no actual home but the public has come together to help these victims.

Across the year, our school has held many projects and fundraisers for the people who were affected.

Examples include pupils bringing in shoe boxes filled with essentials like; toothpaste, toothbrushes, cloths, games and books.

Huge effort was put into this as we put up posters, had assemblies on it hoping that people would give as much as they could. Everyday we think of what those people who might've been hurt or injured and hope they are ok now.

At the hustings yesterday we listened to the song that was written for the Grenfell Tower fire. Remembering of those that may still be recovering or who that don't have a home as the song played.

By Aoife Leydon, Joseph Meadowcroft and Suki Fitzwilliam.

Sky High Blues Triumph !

After a fantastic election between some tremendous candidates, a worthy winner was declared!

And the results are in!! With a close runner up of Annie (from revolutionary reds), Kit Crane of Sky High Blues, has won the election, and will soon be our schools new Prime Minister. Mr Solomon Rigg (our current PM) stated “ I am more than happy to pass on my role to Kit as he has loads of good qualitys such as being experienced in public speaking”.

Mr Crane commented “I am excited to fulfil my pledges and prove I can be a good PM” and also told us that his inspiration to run for Prime Minister was that he had lost in previous years but wanted to try again.

Phillip Glanville, the mayor of Hackney presented the election results as everyone sat in the back playground patiently. The announcement of Kit’s success was followed by much applause and cheers. The consensus seemed to be that although all the candidates impressed, he was a worthy winner.

After the announcement, Kit was mobbed by a group of his friends and followers; the excitement was contagious! People thronged around him, desperate for a hand shake or a fist bump. And in the background, stood Izzac, nodding sagely at his protégé.

By Cerys Gething

The People Have Spoken!

A great selection of quotes about the election and the victorious party

“There’s no doubt in my mind, Kit was a worthy winner!”

“I thought Annie was unlucky—there can’t have been much between them. She will make a great deputy!”

“The best democracy week ever which produced 5 excellent candidates and an outstanding PM!”

All the candidates impressed me—it was so difficult to choose a winner!”

“I’m in Y6 could and I had a great time”

I’m impressed at the way Y4 have taken over!”

“It was amazing that the mayor of Hackney came to our school!”

“I wish it could be democracy every week!”

“I think it’s good that an upcoming Y5 is PM because he will have more time next year”

“There’s no doubt that that this is the best democracy week to date although last year was hard to top”

“I’m proud and inspired by the way the children were able to express their democratic right. Why doesn’t every school do this?”

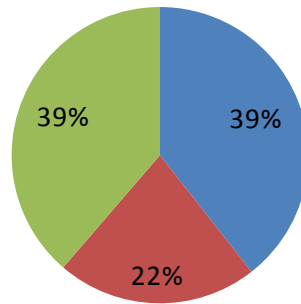

“Solly did the school proud—Thank You”

“I love the way all the candidates were so gracious and respectful”

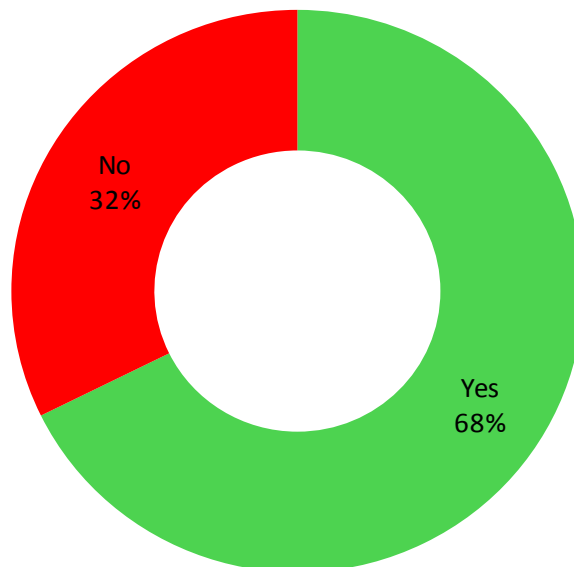

THE LATEST POLLS!!

Why did the majority of the School Vote for who they voted for?

■ Speech ■ Pledges ■ Confidence

Did The Majority Of The School Think Kit Would Win The Election?

By

Jamaan Ahmed

Oscar Anderson

Aajah Yankana